

#	Question	Asker Name	Answer(s)
1	Hi Doug, if us growers down here in Isleton want to keep growing our crop, can we define our neighborhood by the growers down here? Are we an entity?	Tobias Bluth	Live answered
2	Do you have to create a log in to view the current district map? I tried to go online but the only thing I could find was the mapping tool which you have to create a login to use.	Maddi R	Hi Maddi - the current Supervisor maps are online in PDF format:  https://www.saccounty.net/Government/Documents/BOS_Districts.pdf
3	Can my soccer club count as a community of interest?	Zoey	Live answered
4	How is the inmate population factored into population when drawing district lines?	Anonymous Attendee	Live answered
5	How many districts are there? Does that change with population growth or do the districts just get bigger?	Anonymous Attendee	Live answered
6	Question for the supervisor: why do you feel it might be important to keep a community together? What might be my motivation to submit a comment defining my community?	Nicole	Live answered
7	If you receive no input from the community (even if in just an area of the county), what resources do you have in redistricting? Does it all depend on community interaction?	Anonymous Attendee	Live answered
8	Ques for the Mayor - glad to see you here supporting this effort. Why do you believe it is important for residents of the county to be involved in the redistricting process?	Anonymous Attendee	Live answered